Castellargo, "Albus," Friuli A blend of Friulano, Chardonnay, and Sauvignon; gives lychee and flowers on the nose, a full, rich creaminess, and a toasted almond finish	$9.50	$38.00
Citra, "Chardonnay," Abruzzo Stainless steel fermentation produces a crisp chardonnay with a zesty acidity while maintaining the varietal's fresh fruit flavors of green apple and pear	$7.75	$31.00
MandraRossa, "Fiano," Sicily At cooler temperatures fiano shows a lemony crispness that opens up to lemon blossoms and cream; as it warms up the wine develops a deceptive sweetness with rich aromas of orange peel and pineapple cake	$6.75	$27.00
Mondoro "Asti," Piedmont A super-premium sparkling from Asti, the village in Piedmont most known for producing quality moscato wines, Mondoro has won more gold medals for taste and quality than any other Italian sparkling wine	$10.00	$40.00
Lamarca, "Prosecco," Sparkling Wine A fruitful sparkling wine with notes of white peach and honeysuckle	$7.00	$28.00
Basciano, Rosato, Tuscany A slightly sweet Sangiovese rose, easy drinking with flavors of rose petals and light berries	$6.50	$26.00

Red Wine

	Glass	Bottle
Roscato, sweet red wine, Lombardy Made from three native grape varieties of Lombardy – Croatina, Teroldego and Lagrein – this deliciously sweet, slightly effervescent red is a great pairing with spicy dishes	$7.75	$31.00
"Goosebump," Sicily A slightly sweet red blend, predominately Nero d'Avola, rich with jammy, dark fruits and a velvety texture	$7.50	$30.00
Stemmari, Pinot Noir, Sicily A warm weather Sicilian Pinot shows fresh, mixed berry aroma and bright, clean finish	$7.75	$31.00
Mazzei, "Badiola," Tuscany A phenomenal Tuscan blend of Sangiovese and Merlot with a youthful body of vibrant red fruits	$8.50	$34.00
